Savor the season in cooperative country

As the sounds of familiar carols, sights of festive decorations and smells of yummy baked goods fill the air, these upcoming events and shopping options will transport you and your family into the holiday spirit:

Conveniently located near the intersection of I-81 and I-64, the Augusta Expo Event Center's 38th Annual Fall Arts & Crafts Show on Nov. 11-12 is where you'll find the perfect gift for almost everyone on your list. Shorter days and cooler nights don't mean the end of live music — bluegrass fans will want to check out Augusta Expo's All American Indoor Music Festival from Nov. 16-18, with a 90-minute "Brothers in Bluegrass" special performance on Friday evening, followed by Ralph Stanley II & the Clinch Mountain Boys on Saturday afternoon. On Dec. 9-10, both hunters and collectors won't want to miss the Showmasters Gun & Knife Show. And on Dec. 31, the Rockin' New Year's Eve party features THE WORX, a multi-genre band that will help you celebrate the start of 2018 in style.

Featuring over 60 vendors and no admission fee, the 38th Annual Farmville Christmas Show on Nov. 11-12 promotes "Shopping with a Cause." After the kids enjoy lunch with Santa, shop at the North Pole, bid on silent auction items and get your holiday photo portraits. Presented in partnership with Centra Southside Community Hospital, all proceeds will benefit STEPS, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit that aids residents of 11 Southside Virginia counties through workforce development, HeadStart education services and housing assistance.

From Nov. 24-Jan. 14, Bevell's Hardware in Blackstone is home to a famous Christmas holiday railroad display. Thousands of folks come from near and far to see this spectacular showcase featuring 10 model trains whose tracks run along, under and beside realistic mountains, bridges, an amusement park, snow village, farm scenes, replicas of local businesses past and present and much, much more. Santa and Mrs. Claus will be on hand, with free admission and refreshments from 10 a.m.-4 p.m. Mondays-Saturdays and noon-3 p.m. on Sundays.

Put the final touches on your holiday spirit by helping "Deck the Halls" at Westmoreland State Park on Dec. 17 from 1-4 p.m. Plan a trip to Virginia's Northern Neck and experience holiday fun, food and music in Murphy Hall, with special gift shop discounts for last-minute purchases!

If you're still stumped on what to get that special someone, what's more Virginia than peanuts? Those grown in the sandy soil of the southeastern part of our state have the largest kernels of any variety, making them ideal for enjoying whole or prepared into delectable, nutritious snacks. For 25 years, the Good Earth Peanut Company of Skippers has provided tasty, made-to-order gift baskets and popular assorted nut samplers. Best of all, with quick and easy ordering at www.goodearthpeanuts.com, there's no need to travel down I-95!

Finally, consider giving an annual subscription to Cooperative Living for friends and family who live outside Virginia co-op country. At just $10 for 10 issues, it's a one-size-fits-all gift that will keep giving all year long!
