

“HERE’S HOW I HELP OTHER PEOPLE!”

Helping others is the heart of charity, and for youngsters, a lofty goal to pursue. In this year’s annual Cooperative Living Youth Art Contest, our young creative minds were asked to produce visual depictions of the theme, “Here’s How I Help Other People.”

The contest was open to children in kindergarten through grade 5. Our call for entries generated more than 250 submissions from all across Virginia. In this 12th-annual contest, we were again amazed at the depth of creative talent reflected in the youthful artwork. From picking up socks and washing dishes, to assisting elderly neighbors across the street and washing dishes, to food for the hungry, our youth today have a good grasp on ways to help others.

As always, choosing winners was no easy task. A panel of judges cast votes for the best art, and the results are shown on the following pages.

Congratulations to all whose work was selected in the judging process. And thank you to all young artists who sent in your work for judging. In the grand realm of creative endeavor, you’re all winners! ■
