

SAY CHEESE by Laura Emery, Field Editor

We want to see your endearing, funny, or beautiful photos — shots of people (kids to grandparents), animals and beautiful scenery. Send to: Say Cheese!, P.O. Box 2340, Glen Allen, VA 23058-2340. Don't send originals; photos cannot be returned. Photos must be high resolution and printed on photo paper; or high-resolution .jpg files may be emailed to saycheese@co-opliving.com with SAY CHEESE! in the subject line. Or, share your photos with us via our Facebook page at www.facebook.com/cooperative.living. Include your name, address and detailed information about the photo with all submissions.

SO CORNY!

AN EARFUL ▲ McKennah Lynn, 18 months old, has got a mouthful of ear. Sent by mother Janet Spillman, who writes, "She's enjoying her PaPa Michael Spillman's corn crop."

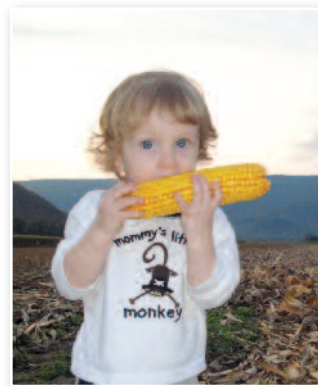

COB COLLECTOR ▶

Little man Grayson Thomas, 2, has filled his wagon with the fruits and vegetables of his labor. After shucking his shirt, Grayson helped plant and work the garden with his parents, Allen and Meredith Thomas.

A-MAIZED ▶

Stella looks completely "shucked" at the beautiful ear of corn in front of her. "She is simply amazed at the corn in the maze!" writes grandmother Jennifer Hudson.

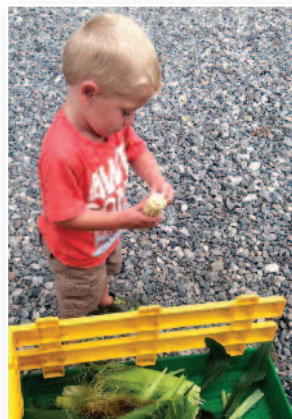

POPPING IN ◀

Jake Dudley (1½) popped into a local cornfield to get an earful of kernels before squirreling some away for his animal friends. "He likes to feed the squirrels," writes mother, Constance Dudley.

CORN STALKER ◀

What did one ear of corn say to the other ear of corn? "Don't look now but I think someone is stalking us!" Bianca Bennett, 3, plays coy amongst the corn in her mother's garden. Photo sent by mother Lauren Lilliston.

AWW, SHUCKS! ◀

Shucking corn is serious business. Corn-collecting cutie McKinley Palmer has a good eye for a good ear of corn. Photo sent by parents Adam and Ashley Palmer.

CORN DOGS ▲ From corn to cucumbers, hardworking German shorthaired pointers collect the bounty of the summer garden. Photo sent by Ruth Simpson. ■
