Costumes!

SOUTHERN CHARM ▲ Boots, class and a li'l sass — that's what these cowgirls are made of. Six-year-old twins Braelyn and Briana Johnson are ready to giddy-up in their western getups. Photo submitted by grandparents Catherine and Thomas Burgess.

NOT IN THE MOO-D ▲ This little 3-year-old Boston terrier, Jellybean, seems to be utterly annoyed by the silly cow costume and might have a bone to pick with his owner, Tina Simmon, later.

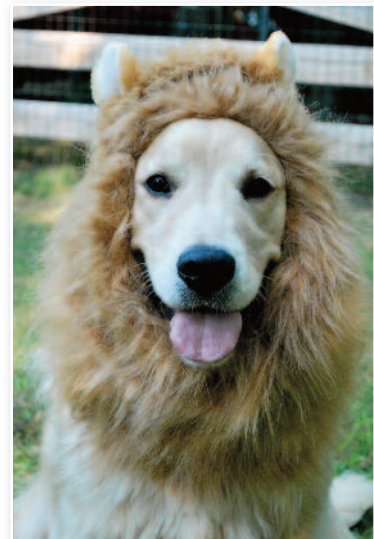

LI'L PUMPKIN ◀ 11-month-old cutie, Camden, keeps very well in a pumpkin shell. This perfect little pumpkin was picked by parents Joseph and Taren Barton of Keysville. Photo sent by grand-pumpkin Brian Morris.

HOLY COW! ▲ Hound dog Skeeter plans to milk his new costumed-cuteness for all it's worth. Skip the tricks and get straight to the treats! Sent by Cheryl Noel of Courtland.

HAPPY MEAL ◀ Small fry, Bryce, and little squirt, Wyatt, complement each other quite nicely — and are enjoying lollipops in lieu of dinner. Photo sent by parents of 18-month-old twins, Cecil and Jonathan Hazelwood of Nathalie. ■

LYIN' KING ▲ Golden retriever, Tucker, is the mane attraction when he's in his lion costume — but he doesn't get what all the uproar is about. This registered Pet Partners therapy dog has a lion's heart and regularly visits nursing homes, libraries and schools. Photo sent by Lynn Peters.
